

Disclosure Information for Class Participants

Personal Financial Management Information Course Four Steps to a Secure Financial Future

1. Four Steps to a Secure Financial Future is a two (2) hour course.
2. The cost of the course is $40 per person or $50 per married couple. Registration and scholarship forms are available online at <http://consumerissues.cas.psu.edu/> or ask your local Penn State Cooperative Extension office to print the form for you from the above Web site. Penn State Extension offices can be located at: <http://www.extension.psu.edu/extmap.html>.
3. If you cannot afford the course fee, please fill out the scholarship form and attach it to your registration application along with a signed letter from your attorney indicating that his/her services were pro bono (donated).
4. Instructors will be trained Penn State Cooperative Family and Consumer Science Educators or an instructor who is supervised by a Penn State Extension Educator.
5. Course dates, times, and locations can be found at <http://consumerissues.cas.psu.edu/> or by contacting your county Penn State Cooperative Extension office <http://www.extension.psu.edu/extmap.html>.
6. Penn State Cooperative Extension, Penn State, and all instructors receive no referral fees for offering the classes.
7. Upon completion of the course and the anonymous evaluation form, Penn State Cooperative Extension will provide participants with a certificate of completion as required by the Department of Justice, Executive Office of the U.S. Trustees.